Derksen back as school board chairman

By Peter Crosby

County councillor and school trustee Dave Derksen has returned to a familiar role.

Mr. Derksen, who represents the rural Didsbury area on County of Mountain View council, was elected chairman of the County of Mountain View board of education last week.

During the board's annual organizational meeting, Mr. Derksen won a close three-way race for the chairmanship defeating the incumbent, Dr. Ed Oke and Didsbury trustee Murray Snyder.

After the first ballots were cast, there was a tie between

Mr. Derksen and Dr. Oke, prompting a second vote won by Mr. Derksen.

Dr. Oke was seeking his third consecutive term as chairman after serving in the post since 1989.

Mr. Derksen has previously served as chairman for three consecutive terms from 1985 through 1988.

The board holds organizational meetings each fall to determine who will hold the chair and to establish committees.

Trustees and councillors are elected every three years. The next round of elections is scheduled for fall, 1992.

Grade 1 entry debated again

By Peter Crosby

The controversial Grade 1 entrance policy age in County of Mountain View schools will again be in the spotlight at this Wednesday's board of education meeting.

Three years ago, the board adopted a policy in line with a recommendation by then-superintendent Dr. Barclay Cant, to set an entrance policy requiring Grade 1 students to have reached their sixth birthdays on or before Sept. 30.

It was one of the earliest entrance age requirements of any jurisdiction in Alberta.

And it sparked a sometimes bitter battle with parents, particularly in Olds and Carstairs, who felt it was unacceptable because it excluded some children whom parents believed were prepared to enter school.

Because of this opposition, the board reinstated a so-called flex period from Sept. 30 to Dec. 31, during which period a child could be considered for school entry, depending on the readiness of the child as determined by the principal and superintendent.

Wednesday, the board will hear a motion to amend the entrance age policy again, making the entrance date Dec. 31 with no flex period.

According to the notice of motion, "many parents found the Sept. 30 date unacceptable because it was so different from the date of surrounding jurisdictions and because it excluded students better prepared than some who were being admitted."

It goes on to say that the flex policy "has created a confrontational environment with some parents who do not accept the decision of the principal and his advisors that their flex-age child is not ready for

Nov. 11 service set

Like other communities—big and small—across Canada, Didsbury will pause to remember its war dead next Monday, Nov. 11.

Didsbury Legion President Charlie Topping said Monday's Remembrance Day service will start at 10 a.m. with participants including Didsbury Cadets and Didsbury Scouting organization.

The service will be held indoors at the Memorial Complex.

Earlier school services are planned for this Friday at Ross Ford Elementary School and Westglen School. The latter service will include Didsbury High School students and staff.

Weather puts paving on hold

By Peter Crosby

The unseasonal weather of the past few weeks has put a crimp in Didsbury's street repair program.

Engineers and soil test consultants are expected to present town council with a report on the situation at tonight's (Nov. 5) meeting.

Chief Administrative Officer Mike Storey said winter-like conditions forced the contractor, Metro Paving of Calgary, to halt work before any asphalt could be put down.

The engineers and soil testers are expected to tell council if they believe there is still enough time, with a week or so of good weather, to complete paving this fall.

"Even if we have just a week of good weather, we might be able to complete the project," said Mr. Storey.

Work has started at eight locations around town but without the application of asphalt, they've been left in rough condition.

A decision had been made to go ahead with the work this fall based on the availability of provincial funding and the fine fall weather a year earlier.

"When we had that record low (-23) the other night, it was 16 above the same day last year," noted Mr. Storey.

If paving can't be done in the next few weeks, it may have to be put over to spring, said Mr. Storey.

If that happens steps may have to be taken to deal with some of the deep drops in the affected areas, he added.

Earlier, a number of council members had expressed satisfaction with the work being done by the contractor, pointing to the care in limiting heavy truckloads on town streets.

Meanwhile, the wintry weather has not affected work on a $740,000 sewer line improvement in southwest Didsbury. Work began last week.

Sentencing postponed

Sentencing of a Didsbury man guilty of dangerous flying causing death, has been put over to Nov. 15.

Judge Gary Cioni is expected to sentence John Everett Page, 44, on that date in Calgary provincial court. Maximum sentence is 14 years.

and was to have been sentenced Oct. 30.

He was the pilot of an ultra-light cropduster that flew into a passing truck June 14, killing the driver, John Henry Monsma, 35, of Didsbury.

The charge was believed to be the first of its kind in Canada.

Goblins cooled

By Peter Crosby

Halloween '91 was one of the coldest, quietest spook nights on record.

With temperatures hovering around the -20 range after a day of snow and stinging winds, goblins stayed home in droves.

"It was very quiet and very cold," said Didsbury RCMP Sgt. Ray Mustard. "There were no Halloween related complaints outside of one vehicle that was hit with either eggs or shampoo."

Sgt. Mustard said the weather may have something to do with it, but Halloween has become pretty tame over the past few years.

"Five or 10 years ago they were burning down elevators and such, at least in some parts of the province," he said.

The trend now seems to be in-home or community parties on Halloween.

Despite the nasty weather, local suppliers had no problem getting rid of pumpkins. "We're usually stuck with a bunch but for some reason they really went fast this year," said a spokesman for AG Foods in Didsbury.

Halloween treats also sold briskly but many households were left with heaping bowls of candy that went unclaimed as Halloween trick or treaters decided against prolonged exposure to the elements.

Many householders reported only five to 10 visitors compared to 40 to 50 in other years.

Despite the weather, students at Ross Ford Elementary School still managed to bring in more than $600 in their UNICEF boxes.

And out at Mullen's barn, east of Didsbury, a frightfully great night was reported.

A total of $203.09 was raised for STARS air ambulance as those who dared enter the scary haunt donated to this worthy cause.

The Mullens said thank-you is due to those who took part and to those who helped promote the scary night.

"After this first year's success, be watching next year for our next haunting experience," said the Mullens.

OPINIONS/EDITORIAL

Prison chances lessen

By Peter Crosby

The chances of a federal prison for women being located in the County of Mountain View are probably remote at best.

Any mild consideration the federal government may have given to this area has probably evaporated given County Council's hostile reaction to the idea.

Everyone on this council sounds like they grew up watching too many Jimmy Cagney or George Raft movies (over the wall, spotlights, bloodhounds).

But I think their remarks at last month's council meeting regarding the possibility of a prison in our midst were mostly a smokescreen.

Council's main concern is that the county wouldn't benefit financially because as a federal institution, the prison wouldn't contribute to the county's tax coffers.

Councillors expressed an often-repeated view with regards to other developments, that only the towns would benefit from a prison.

And so it goes.

The towns, it should be noted haven't shown a great deal of solidarity on this matter either. Any notion of a joint (no pun intended) proposal, involving towns and/or the county seems like the same old pipedream.

Weatherman panned

This early winter weather is throwing a lot of things for a loop! Halloween was virtually eliminated.

The frosty doings have left Didsbury streets looking a little like a war zone with frozen street repair equipment scattered about and paving left to another day, probably about five or six months away.

And through it all, have you noticed how many people seem to revel in this early coming of winter?

They love to point to how the Farmer's Almanac predicted this and that it's going to last until at least January. Cold. Snow. Miserable.

And they love it!

So much for the greenhouse effect.

One other bright note, if this wonderful weather continues, it could help our Stampedeers knock off the B.C. Lions this weekend in Canadian Football League's Western Conference semi-final.

Our guys should be better prepared than those Flutie-led Lions from Lotus Land. Bring on the ice, the snow and winds. And on to Edmonton (one more time) for a date with the monstrous Eskimos.

Grey Cup prediction: Calgary versus Toronto. A repeat of Calgary's last Grey Cup appearance 20 years ago in Vancouver and of course, a Stampeder win.

Volunteers who work on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross in Didsbury are busy soliciting contributions this month. Please help when a volunteer calls on your door. Didsbury's goal is $6,500.

Judgment of prisoners' families unfair

Dear Editor:

After reading the article on the front page of The Review (Oct. 29), "County Against Women's Prison," I am left to wonder what kind of henchmen are on the county council.

Mr. Grimstead's remark "prisoners' children could have a negative impact in classrooms," and Mr. Richards' remark "Even if we had room in the school I would be concerned about the negative effects." This makes me sick!

What gives the county council the right to pass judgment? Do they not think for one minute of the suffering an inmate's family goes through while they wait for a loved one to return home.

We are shunned by many, ignored by most and tolerated by some. Being incarcerated for a crime is one thing, but sitting in judgment of innocent children is a disgrace. The lack of sensitivity on the part of the county council makes my blood boil. I think the county council should hang their heads in shame. In my opinion they are all a disgrace.

My husband is an ex-convict and my children and I have dealt with people like the ones on the county council. With people like this passing judgment on my children I wonder if I would want them in your school system. The values they have could be tarnished by your Klu-Klux-Klan way of thinking.

Sincerely,
An Ex-Convict's wife from Didsbury

County's prison stance challenged

Dear Editor:

Re: County against women's prison (Review, Oct. 29).

I have a concern about the guilt-by-association comments reportedly made by several County Council members as reasons for not wanting a women's prison. This kind of stereotyping needs to be challenged.

Does anyone really know what effect the possible addition of the children of female prisoners might have in a school system? Have any studies been done? If not, then why the uninformed and biased guesswork? Let us hear the results of careful research on the topic before jumping to conclusions.

My family has lived in two smaller communities with correctional facilities nearby. While there are always children with problems stemming from abusive or broken homes, I have yet to hear of a "negative impact in classrooms" specifically by the children of prisoners.

If guesswork is permitted, let me add mine. My guess is that few families of female prisoners would be likely to move to our town, for simple economic reasons. Also, those who might do so would likely avoid drawing unfavorable attention because of the stigma already felt with "Mom in jail."

There may be valid reasons for not wanting a jail here, but the kind of comments cited in the article do not qualify, in my opinion.

Since women's prisons seem to be necessary, it seems to me that placing them in small, stable communities like our might be the best possible choice for other than economic spin-offs. For one thing, a staff of guards largely rooted here might be more helpful in the work of rehabilitation than one drawn from a large, impersonal city. Smaller schools with the kind of elite staff we have could also be in a better position to offer the caring help which troubled children need. As well, the local churches could provide various kinds of ministries, such as worship services, study groups, chaplaincy and visiting programs.

Instead of viewing a prison as community contamination, we could accept it as a challenge and an opportunity to do good by working for the social, moral and spiritual redemption of prisoners and their families. Would that not be "proclaiming release to the captives" in the best sense, according to the intention of Jesus? (Luke 4). And isn't that what "correctional" institutions are for?

Sincerely,
Norman Bergen,
R.R. 2, Didsbury

Small business plays vital economic role

Hon. Roy Brassard, MLA
Olds-Didsbury Constituency

Small business plays a vital role in Alberta's economy. Currently 97% of businesses operating in Alberta are classified as small businesses. The Economic Council of Canada estimates that small business accounts for up to 80% of all innovations made in the business community.

Small businesses serve to broaden the base of the provincial economy, making us less reliant on a few commodities and better protected against economic downturns. They vary from small home-based operations offering neighbourhood services all the way to global concerns marketing new communications technologies worldwide. They are also major employers. Firms with less than 20 employees account for 31% of all employment in Alberta and from 1979-1989 accounted for approximately three quarters of all new net jobs. These figures show the depth of the contribution that small firms and individual Albertans make to our economy.

Small business is on the rise in this province. In 1990 Alberta averaged over 1,330 new business incorporations per month, compared to only 94 reported business bankruptcies. In addition, increasing amounts of small businesses are being run by women. Women business owners in Alberta grew in number by over 26% from 1981 to 1986, while the number of male business owners in the province increased by 1%. The numbers of young Albertans launching new ventures and seniors extending their careers as consultants and proprietors are rising as well.

The Alberta Government is working with businesses throughout the province to promote the entrepreneurial spirit. There are business counsellors located throughout the province available to respond to small business people with questions on how to start up new businesses, improve existing ones, or expand to new markets. They provide business information to clients on subjects including financing, marketing, manufacturing and business assistance programs. Staff are also available to help organize or conduct workshops and seminars on business development.

Alberta Business Profiles are now available on different types of businesses in the province, presenting information including market size, industry trends, operating ratios, industry sales figures and buying patterns to help managers make informed business decisions. There is also a business line available to assist Albertans with general business enquiries.

Albertans have an important opportunity before them to play an active role in our province's economic future. "Toward 2000 Together" is a plan to allow each Albertan to assist in the development of a provincial economic strategy. Packages including a discussion paper, summary brochure and a questionnaire are being distributed to groups and individuals throughout Alberta. By completing the questionnaire and sending it in,

Albertans can communicate their thoughts and feelings on our province's economic direction.

If you would like a copy of the "Towards 2000 Together" package, call 1-800-661-PLAN or contact my office. For more information on Alberta Business Profiles, please contact The Business Line at 1-800-272-9675, and please call my office in Olds 556-3132 any time you have a concern or if you wish to voice an opinion.

appointed had even begun its review.

Recently at one Edmonton premise (as reported in Edmonton Sun), while a stripper strutted her stuff, a male patron, becoming sexually excited, stripped and took to the stage and danced about two minutes before the cops moved in and arrested him. Interestingly, females dance nude on the same stage, putting on 30 outrageous displays 14 hours a day, seven days a week, and have no concern whatsoever about the cops arresting them. Ironically, their nude dancing is rewarded by megabucks.

How does Fowler explain away the Criminal Code of Canada which says in Section 174 that any person who is nude in a public place without lawful excuse is guilty of an offence?

Fowler has shown us that he is prepared to overlook the Criminal Code, in certain instances, when it comes down to adding loot to government coffers by boosting alcohol sales to over $1 million per day with nude shows. Talk about discrimination in high places.

To its credit, the Getty government has now appointed a committee to review the issue of nude bar shows. No one can doubt Mr. Getty's sincerity in asking for public input in the form of letters to Dick Fowler and the MLAs, Legislature Bldg., Edmonton. Ask your MLA how he will be voting on the issue. We trust that Mr. Getty will find that naked dancing in bars does not promote traditional family values.

How Power Smart Hugh Davies is raising high pressure sodium bulbs- and his bank balance.

When Hugh Davies took down the old mercury vapour yard light, and put up a high pressure sodium light fixture, he made a brilliant move.

First, he earned a $20 rebate. Then he started saving on energy costs every month, because energy-efficient HPS lights deliver more light for less money.

A 150-watt HPS light, for example, is 45% brighter - and 35% more cost-efficient - than a 250-watt mercury vapour light. This translates to savings of about $115 over the next 5 years, and that's not counting the $20 rebate. It all adds up to money in the bank for Power Smart people like Hugh Davies.

Whether you're switching from MV to HPS, or purchasing your first HPS yard light, you can get in on the rebate.

National 4-H Week being celebrated

This week, Nov. 4-10, is National 4-H Week across Canada.

In Alberta, this upcoming 4-H year is going to be extra special. In 1992, 4-H will celebrate its 75th year in this province. So while you are thinking about 4-H this week, think ahead and plan to take in the celebrations of 4-H in 1992.

Seventy-four years ago, in 1917, Mr. W.J. Elliott foresaw the need to inform rural youth about agriculture and teach them the technologies of the day. It began in Olds and the young club members raised hogs that year. Mr. Elliott was the Principal of the School of Agriculture in Olds and the previous year he had introduced the concept of agriculture education in a number of rural schools in Alberta.

In that first club year, the Bank of Commerce provided $30 for each boy or girl to buy two small registered sows. In E.B. Swindlehurst's 1967 book "4-H In Alberta" it is reported that:

"The notes carried interest charges of 8 per cent, but 6 per cent of this was returned by the bank to provide prizes at the fall fair. The arrangement was that around December 31, 1917, the boy or girl should sell one of the sows and pay back the loan. But the bank was so pleased with the way the project developed that they decided to carry the notes over so that all who wished might retain both sows.

"And Mr. Elliott was looking ahead. These clubs were to be no passing phase. Boars were secured so that litters of pigs could be raised the following spring. 'The boys and girls will thus be in a position to supply choice sows to other clubs that may be started during 1918,' he said. But in Mr. Elliott's estimation the main thing was that the boys and girls had received first class livestock of their own, and naturally they were both proud and happy. Managers of Bank of Commerce branches at Granum and Stony Plain also became interested, and before the year was out pig clubs were flourishing in these districts as well.

"It was a great idea, and the Alberta Department of Agriculture thought so too. In 1918, Deputy Minister H.A. Craig authorized Mr. Elliott to take in hand organization of pig clubs throughout the Province. Organization meetings were held, and by the end of the year, in addition to the three clubs mentioned, we had enthusiastic pig club members at Vermilion, Camrose, Red Deer, Eckville, Crossfield, Warner, Claresholm, Acme, Provost, Stavely, High River and Vulcan; all the members receiving bank loans to assist in their activities."

Since that first club in 1917, 4-H has changed significantly. It is no longer just a club for youth who live on a farm. There are over 30 projects to choose from with plenty of options for members who live on acreages and in towns.

That brings us to present day 4-H and an opportunity to look to the future. 4-H clubs throughout Alberta will be highlighting the anniversary in various ways, including attending Showcase '92, July 31 - August 2, in Calgary. This provincial gathering will draw together past, present and future 4-H members, leaders and supporters in this action-packed celebration.

Mark your calendar and plan to attend. The three day event will showcase 4-H past, present and future. It will provide plenty of opportunities to reminisce, visit old friends, meet new ones, learn, and best of all have fun, something 4-H has offered us for 75 years.

If you would like more information contact your local District Home Economist or Regional 4-H Specialist.

Sport card trade fairs Saturdays

Wayne Gretzky may not be playing hockey 30 years from now, but he'll always be in full uniform at the Turnbull home in Olds.

That's where most of his statistics will be too—all neatly detailed on the backs of numerous hockey cards collected by Scott Turnbull.

Most of them are for his own personal stash, but some will be displayed at the Hockey Card Trade Fairs he's organizing every Saturday at Horizon School.

Turnbull, who works full time at Padnoma Support Services, is hoping the fairs will provide an outlet for kids of all ages to share in what he calls, "Canada's favorite past time."

"I'm hoping to get some kids out there with their dads to trade or just to browse around in a relaxed, low-key atmosphere where there isn't a lot of big bucks being thrown around like at some of the larger shows you hear about," Turnbull says. "People like to follow their heroes, and I just want to give them an outlet to do that."

Turnbull's realistic about the number of people that'll likely turn out at the fairs though, and legends aside, he knows the renewed popularity in collecting and trading cards has only begun to catch on in towns like Olds.

"In town here, there's probably only five or 10 per cent of the people who actually collect cards right now... but that can change."

Already, Turnbull says he's noticed more kids trading cards at school with their friends and hope to attract the more avid collectors to his Fairs. "We have no idea where the Fairs will take us, but I know there will likely be a lot of kids buying tables to display their own collections."

Turnbull relates easily to the younger collectors. Like most other children, growing up in his day, he can remember stowing away sports cards of all the greats. The cards he collects today, though, serve a slightly different purpose. They're part in a series of hockey cards he's been hunting down for his 2½-year-old son Kyle.

"I just got back from Spokane this weekend, actually you can usually pick up some Gretzky cards there for a lot cheaper than you can get them up here. Baseball and football cards are the ones that are more pricey down there."

The hunting's paying off. Altogether, he has 85 of the 140 Gretzky cards on the market.

Is it addicting? Maybe, but only as a form of relaxation. "What's fun for me," Turnbull says, "is to look through the cards and reminisce about the players. That's what's rewarding... to look back."

To Turnbull, that's what makes the hunt worthwhile.

Hainstock history gets federal help

On Oct. 25th Louise Feltham, MP, was to present to the Hainstock Centennial History Book Association the New Horizons grant. This event was to take place at the Olds Legion, but due to a severe snow storm in the Calgary area Mrs. Feltham was unable to attend. The group has received their cheque.

This grant is made available to senior volunteer groups of retired Canadians, to carry out programs of their own choosing.

The Hainstock group will use this grant as start up money for supplies, research, computer time, rentals, etc. They plan to publish a Centennial History of the Hainstock and surrounding areas. This will all culminate in July of 1994 with a book dedication and a three day Home Coming.

One of the group has consulted a Psychic regarding the book. Yes the book will be published. The hard cover will be a burgundy color. The Psychic would not reveal the name of the book as the name is open for suggested names from the families who submit their history.

Jim Thomson group chairman has already put the bit on his two brothers Wylie and Jack who were the first to pre-purchase the History Book.

Childspace acquires ceramics shop

Childspace Manufacturing Ltd. has acquired the Creative Horizons ceramics shop from the Horizon School.

Originally established as a vocational training facility as part of the school, Creative Horizons was based in Didsbury and provided vocation training for the students of Horizon School. As the shop increased in size and scope the operation moved to Imperial Way, Olds where it has been located for the past half dozen years.

As times change the need for such a facility as part of the Horizon School decreased and earlier this year the Horizon School Board decided to close the operation.

Recognizing that Childspace had the mandate and the resources to operate the shop as a profit making venture the Board of Directors of Childspace was approached to see if they would be able to take over the operation. "We are very happy to see Childspace pick up the ball and run with it," commented Horizon School principal Richard Peppinck.

It is the intention of the Board to operate Creative Horizons as a profit making venture while still providing jobs for adults who are mentally disabled. The store will primarily supply greenware to studios and craft shops throughout Southern Alberta as well as offering paints, glazes and supplies.

The facility will also be used for classes both during the day and in the evenings. "This is an exciting venture for us," said Childspace GM Chris Whittaker.

"It will allow us to offer some jobs to women for a change."

The Creative Horizons shop is located at 6619 Imperial Way, Olds. The Board and administration of Childspace expect the operation to provide employment to three people initially, and break even at the end of their first full year of operations.

Two nabbed in liquor store break-in Sundre RCMP have arrested two youths after the Alberta Government Liquor Store in Sundre was broken into and a few bottles of liquor stolen on the weekend.

The youths, aged 16 and 14, are being charged with break, enter and theft. Under the Young Offenders Act, the accused cannot be identified.

They are to be arraigned in Sundre provincial court on Nov. 12.

Sundre RCMP said an investigation is continuing into the matter and charges against a third person are pending.

A window at the liquor store was smashed either late Saturday night or early Sunday morning and a "small quantity" of liquor stolen, RCMP said.

Light Horse working 30 years

In 1961, the Sundre & District Light Horse Association was formed.

The first year there were 185 members including president Dennis Ratcliff, secretary Gladys Bowman, vice president Jake Sederns and press correspondent Mae Scott.

Thirty years later, the Club is still going strong with meetings the first tuesday each month in the high school lunch room, six horse shows during the summer months held at Alta-Bar Arena, learning clinics and trail rides.

On the occasion of our 30th Anniversary, we would like to extend a special invitation to all original charter and previous members, to our Year-End Awards Night. Please see coming events for details.

Jackson W.I. news

Our hostess Noreen Olson, chose for the Oct. 23 meeting, the song "The Good Old Summertime." Perhaps with nostalgia as it was a cold day with snow on the ground. We then repeated the collect.

Sixteen members were welcomed by our president, Joan Foat and answered to the roll call "A woman I most admire and one of her outstanding characteristics." Two of our own members, Nellie Davies and Elma Bird, received two "votes" each from other members which re-affirms how good they are as neighbors. Several "votes" were cast for the queen, Margaret Thatcher, Mary Dover, Mother Teresa, and Kim Campbell for riding our country of Ng.

The minutes were read by Lita Reid in her position as secretary and adopted as read.

Lita then read the minutes of the executive meeting which were also adopted as read. Out of this meeting came two dates we should put on our agenda, December 8 is our Constituency Christmas Carol Service to be held at Knox United Church in Didsbury. Also the Constituency Conference will be held in Harmattan with Zella hosting the event. And "sometime" in April the district conference will be held in Airdrie this year with specifics in a later newsletter.

Kay Unger read a letter sent to us by Sheila Bjerkseth who is the Provincial Convenor of Education. One point brought out in the letter was new rules pertaining to bar opening times. We try to stress "family" and "family times" and yet the bars are now opened on Sundays for families. Another point to her letter was the proliferation of strippers in bars. Letters of protest should be written and with our workshop of "Communicate with Confidence" having been completed, we should be able to write letters of dissent effectively.

Our Institute was asked for a monetary contribution to a resource library. It will be used by both teachers and parents alike to help with handicapped children in our school system. Dot Odell made the motion that we donate $50.00; seconded by Elma Bird with the proviso that we obtain more information regarding the specific use of our donation.

The nursing home fee will be held on November 28 which is a Thursday at 1:30.

The nominating committee was established with Mary Jane Davies and Alice Van Arnam as volunteers be prepared to say "yes" when we telephone.

Catharine Reid as our International Affairs Convenor read an article on world-wide tourism. The main thrust of the article was the trouble with tourism is tourists. Capri has set a limit on the number of tourists per season; the shores of Venice are sinking because of the abundance of tourists and Bath, England is also suffering. Our own Pacific rim trail has now put limitations on the number of hikers walking in that Pristine Wilderness. Thank you, Catharine.

A delightful lunch was served by Marguerite Krebs and Darlene Hallett.

Our next meeting will be at Darlene Hallett's home on Nov. 20. Note difference in date and we must have written suggestions for 1992 or suffer a fine and/or chastisement!

CREMONA/WATER VALLEY NEWS

Brander waiting word on tryout

By Peter Crosby

Cremona School physical education teacher Joanne Brander is keeping her fingers crossed and waiting for the phone to ring these days.

Brander is hoping she'll be invited to the training camp which will select a Canadian national women's hockey team to compete at the international level.

First, Brander had to impress the scouts at a southern Alberta training camp that attracted 62 players. She did and was chosen to attend a provincial tryout at a three-day camp in Calgary held in mid-October.

Up to 20 candidates from this camp will be up for consideration in the National Team selection camp scheduled for January.

"I'm feeling pretty good about my chances," Brander said.

For one thing, she was healthy for the Alberta tryouts, the first time in recent memory she hasn't been hobbled by a broken bone or other injury.

Joanne Brander

Joanne plays hockey on a regular basis, suiting up with the Turbo Chargers in a Calgary women's league. She plays "any forward position."

This is her fourth year as a teacher at Cremona. In addition to her daily classroom responsibilities she coaches the senior girls basketball team at the school and track and field.

Word on the provincial tryout is expected any day now.

The National Team will play at the world championships in Finland in April.

Hockey, ringette news

Submitted by Ryan Robertson

Saturday, November 2 saw the initial League play of both our Dynamite and Novice Teams in the newly formed 2 & 27 League. In Cremona, The Dynamite played host to Olds 2 and the two teams battled to a 5-5 tie. All reports indicate that it was a very entertaining contest. Coach Kevin Ryan was very pleased with the play of his team.

Meanwhile, the Novice Team coached by Al MacRae and Larry Gano travelled to Didsbury and played Didsbury 2. Despite trailing early 3-0, they battled back to the game at 3, and the lead see-sawed to the final buzzer. When the smoke had finally cleared Didsbury 2 came out with a 7-6 win in a game which easily could have gone either way.

The Cremona Coaches were pleased at how their squad fought back and were persistent. Next action for The Novice's is Saturday, November 9 at 9 a.m. in Cremona when they play Sundre. The Dynamites hit the road the same day to Didsbury where they play Didsbury 1 at 10 a.m.

Good luck kids!

Annual meeting held

At the annual meeting of the Mountain View Association for the Mentally Handicapped, held on October 27, presentations were made to Hon. Roy Brassard, staff, volunteers, retiring board members, community groups and businesses who have contributed in various ways to the success of our association during the past year.

A plaque was presented to Hon. Roy Brassard in appreciation for pursuing the vision of citizens with disabilities in our Alberta communities.

Staff recognized by long service awards were: Wendy Moulson, 8 years; Brenda Baptist, 8 years; Marie Clark, 7 years; Verlie Weiss, 6 years; Myoleen Wilson, 6 years; Linda Maxwell, 6 years; Judy Billings, 5 years; Derek Lewis, 5 years; Larry Wilson, 5 years; and Ron Toker, 5 years.

Certificates were presented to volunteers Eula Chrest, Don and Phyllis Lynch, Gary and Peggy Nooy, and Cindy Creighton who have given their time and enthusiasm to our activities.

Retiring board members, Bille Jeges, Peter Coulter and Jim Stone were recognized for their contributions and time.

Businesses and community groups given certificates of thanks for their support were: Mobil Oil, Royal Canadian Legion (Olds), Carstairs Community Chest, Knox Thrift Shop (Didsbury), Olds Kiwanis Club, Olds Lions Club, Camp Freedom, Olds College Farm Dept., Olds Co-op, Olds I.G.A., Tedd's Food Mart, Dairy Queen (Olds), Rosehill Auction Service, Fast Gas, and Field's Store.

The board members for M.V.A.M.H. for the coming year are Pat James, Howard Skoropad, Harvey Jacobsen, Rita

Thompson, Victoria Dowson, Jean Paton, and Betty Kendall.

Mountain View Association for the Mentally Handicapped, a community-based association, is governed by a volunteer board of directors and supplies residential and vocational services in the towns of Olds and Didsbury.

The Cameo revived

The Glenbow Museum is coming to Carstairs through a special loan of artifacts which will be on view in the Roulston Museum. This display will include a revival of a classic art form--The Cameo. It will be on view from Nov. 6, through January 1992.

When Queen Victoria reigned in the early 1800's, cameos became very popular. Costly stones were initially used for cameos, however to satisfy the growing demand, shells were then used. The display includes many cameos carved from various mediums, and also tools that were used to carve out the raw shells.

This display is part of Glenbow's Rural Loans Program which extends museum access to Alberta communities. Small exhibits are circulated on a three month rotating schedule and housed in a single, permanent display case. While the case remains in one venue the artifacts within it are changed by Glenbow staff.

For more information, please call the Roulston Museum at 337-3710.

Meet the Ramblers

Red Wilson

Red Wilson, goaltender, last played senior hockey during the 1988-89 season with Olds Elks. He's 30 years of age, stands 5'8" and weighs 150 pounds. Red lives in Olds where he's a salesman for Mark's Work Warehouse.

Ramblers drop opener to Olds

By Peter Crosby

Didsbury Ramblers opened play in the Chinook Hockey League last Thursday with an 8-2 loss at the hands of Olds Elks.

Despite the loss, coach Al McCoy said he was happy with the Ramblers' performance as Didsbury iced a senior hockey team for the first time in five years.

"It's too early to make too many judgments," said McCoy. "For a lot of these guys, it was the first time playing together so it's going to take some time. But we figure to improve."

The Ramblers got out of the gate in fine fashion, taking a 2-1 lead into the first intermission but then the roof fell in as Didsbury took a succession of costly penalties in the second period.

Olds capitalized with the man advantage, scoring five straight power play goals.

"We won the first period but the second was pretty one-sided," said McCoy. Only the outstanding effort of goalie Marty Krebs kept the score as close as it was. Krebs faced 49 shots.

Darcy Conley scored an even strength goal to put Didsbury on top 1-0 before Rick Kasic squared matters for the Elks. Conley was assisted by Chris Overwater and Jamie Jensen.

Upcoming games

Thursday, Nov. 7, Trochu at Didsbury, 8:30 p.m.
Saturday, Nov. 9, Hobbema at Didsbury, 8:30 p.m.

Then, Brent Youngs on passes from Greg Laveck and Steve Wray gave the Ramblers a 2-1 lead while playing short-handed.

After that, it was all Olds in the scoring department. Besides Kasic, other Olds marksmen were Peter Dickrow, Troy McClean, Boyd Laflamme, Don Mennear, Ross Cromwell, Rob Skaluk and Randy Jorgenson.

Didsbury will try to break into the win column with a pair of home games this week. On Thursday, 8:30 p.m., Trochu will be in town and then Saturday at 8:30 p.m., the Ramblers will tangle with Hobbema.

If 250 fans pay their way into Thursday's game or any home game, there will be a special door prize draw for a color TV. In recognition of Remembrance Day, all veterans who attend Saturday's game will be admitted free.

Curling gets into full swing

By Peter Crosby

Shot-makers get down to serious business at the Didsbury Curling Club this week as play opens in men's, ladies and mixed leagues.

Mixed play is on Monday and Wednesday nights, men's play is slotted on Tuesdays and the ladies take to the ice on Thursdays.

Club president Ted McCreary notes that any curlers who want to get in on the action can still contact him, any time, for information.

The first bonspiel at the local club is set for Nov. 16 to 17, a seniors event. Contact Howard Krebs for information.

First place battle in Olds

By Peter Crosby

First place will be on the line when Calgary Royals visit Olds Grizzlys in Alberta Junior Hockey League action this Wednesday.

Game time at the Olds Sportsplex is 7:30 p.m.

The Grizzlys have 26 points, just two in arrears of the front-running Royals, after last week's action in the nine-team loop. Olds has played 17 games (12-3-2) while the Royals have played 19.

The Grizzlys managed to pick up three points in three outings last week, despite being shorthanded due to suspensions and the flu.

Four players were suspended for two games each following a game-ending brawl in Fort McMurray, Oct. 26. While Mark Wobeck, Jamie Price, Steve Street and Drew Ginther drew two-game sentences, defence-man Gary Lebsack was slapped with a four-game suspension.

With these five on the sidelines and two other regulars at home with the flu, the Grizzlys dropped a hard-fought 3-2 decision to the Calgary Canucks in Calgary last Wednesday. Eric Fulton and Curtis Sheptak scored for Olds.

The Grizzlys were still short-handed Friday but came up with a solid effort to thrash Fort Saskatchewan Traders 8-3 at the Sportsplex. Darcy Dallas came out of sick bay to natch two goals and an assist for the winners. Blair Kambeitz, with his first of the season, Jason Mansoff, Mike McPhee, Steve Opp, Reo Lajeunesse and Fulton added singletons.

"The difference in this game was goalkeeping," said Grizzly GM Bob Clark. "Fort Saskatchewan's was shaky, while Larry Moberg was very steady."

Playing at home again on Saturday, the Grizzlys lost 5-4 in an overtime shootout against Lloydminster Blazers. The game was tied 4-4 after regulation and overtime, so each team picked up one point. The Blazers earned an additional point by scoring on two of five shots in the shootout. The Grizzlys scored once in their five attempts.

"We had our chances to win it in overtime, outshooting them 7-1, and Fulton hit the post," said Clark. Lajeunesse, Fulton, Kambeitz and Mansoff scored for Olds.

Meanwhile, McCreary says the Didsbury club is looking forward to hosting three provincial zone playdowns.

The first of these is the men's scheduled for Dec. 13 to 15. The ladies Zone 2 playdowns are slated for Jan. 2 to 5 and the junior men's are set for Jan. 10 to 13.

game with the Royals, the Grizzlys will entertain Fort McMurray Oil Barons on Friday, 8 p.m. It's Bike Night and three bikes will be drawn for. All elementary students in the county can attend free if accompanied by an adult.

$1000 UP TO CASH BACK OR AS LOW AS 7.9% FINANCING OVER 48 MONTHS ON SELECTED 1991 MODELS*

*These offers may not be combined or used in combination with any other offer. Offer applies to new and unused, or demonstrator models purchased from dealer inventory. Offer valid for a limited time starting October 28, 1991 or while quantities last and applies to retail deliveries only. GST is included in Cash Back. 7.9% financing offer available with no limit on the amount financed, to qualified retail buyers financing their purchases through GMAC on a maximum 48 month contract. Example: For $15,000 financed over 48 months at 7.9% APR, the monthly payment is $365.49, the cost of borrowing is $2,543.52 and the total amount to be repaid is $17,543.52. Assuming a rebate of $1000 as the alternative, should you choose the reduced financing rate, legislation requires that the amount of the rebate must be included in the cost of borrowing in order to arrive at an effective interest rate. In the example given, the effective interest rate would be 10.80% APR, and the total cost of borrowing, including the rebate not taken, would be $3,543.52. Some conditions apply. See your participating dealer for complete details.

Don't delay. Wide choice of colors and models are in stock for immediate delivery. Clearout ends November 9, 1991 or while supplies last. Act NOW for best selection.

The Way of Life

Dr. Travis Cannaday
Knox United Church
Didsbury

The year is 1855. The country is Ireland. In the city of Dublin there is a young man standing at the window of his apartment. He is looking out into the fog that shrouds the city streets with a blue haze that is particular to that part of the world. The bell in the steeple of St. Mary's church strikes nine o'clock in the evening. The young man's name is Joseph. He drums his fingers nervously on the windowsill. Tomorrow he is to be married to the love of his life. The silence of his room is broken as someone knocks on the door. Opening the door, Joseph can tell from the ashen look on the face of his visitor that something is terrible, tragically wrong. The friend tells him the shattering news that the young woman whom Joseph Scriven was to marry had drowned that afternoon.

Weeks passed. Joseph, recently graduated from Trinity College in Dublin, grieved for the face and the voice and the hand of his love. His grief turned to anger and resentment. He decided to leave Ireland, and, at the age of twenty-five, he sailed to Canada. There, he settled at Port Hope, Ontario, where he taught school. When the dark months of grief had been endured, Joseph Scriven came to some positive and definite resolutions. Some of these thoughts he set down in writing in the form of a poem. He mailed that poem back to his mother in Dublin to comfort her at a time when she had sorrow in her own life. Joseph never dreamed that his little poem would be published and later gain worldwide use. In fact, it first appeared in print in 1865, 10 years after Joseph wrote it. The wonder of those simple words has made them well known and loved as a hymn we still love to sing. Joseph Scriven wrote:

"What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry Everything to God in prayer!"

Obituary

COATES

Mr. Gerald (Jack) Coates of Delia, Alberta, passed away quietly at home, October 27, 1991 at the age of 75 years.

He leaves to mourn his passing three sons; Harley (Ilajean) of Penhold, Les (Lorraine) of Sundre, Bill (Louise) of Hussar, one daughter Jackie (Ken) Friedley of Delia, nine granddaughters, eight grandsons, two great grandsons, one great-granddaughter, one brother Jim of Cremona, two sisters Hazel of Bowden, Grace of Didsbury.

He was predeceased by his wife Ethel, one son Wesley Gerald, three brothers, Billy, Harry, and Pat.

Funeral services were held Friday, Nov. 1, 1991 from the Delia Community Hall with Pastor Richard Peachy officiating, interment to follow in the Delia Cemetery.

If friends so desire, donations may be made to the Alberta Heart and Stroke Foundation. Winter's Funeral Homes of Drumheller and Hanna are in care of the arrangements.

Gwen Trottler

It is apparent there continue to be issues arising from the operations of the Carstairs Kindergarten two years ago respecting my conduct as President at that time.

Accordingly, I am taking this action to invite you to meet with me for an open discussion of these matters.

I have arranged for Mr. Stephen Stiles to attend as a moderator and look forward to meeting with you on Friday, November 8th,

Mountain View W.I. news

By Jeanette Hunter

The Oct. 18 meeting was at Jeanette Hunter's with only six members present. This was really Fern Olson's meeting as she was unable to have it.

Roll call was dress like a man or pay a $1.00 fine, Frieda Klein and Marjory Stiles were our only dressed-up gals.

The usual opening ceremonies took place.

Our meetings will again be advertised on the Community

Calendar by the Girl Guides.

Peggy gave the Environmental Conservation report for an absent member.

"We breath Los Angeles type air in our homes." This was a very startling reading as it pertains to us all.

One of our members Phyllis Leeder will be celebrating her 80th birthday on Nov. 3. Congratulations Phyllis. The party was in the Anglican Hall, Sunday, Nov. 3.

In Memoriam

In memory of our beloved son and brother, Andrew James Suchla, who was taken suddenly from us on Oct. 29, 1990.

Because We Care
"Because we care, our lives were touched when sorrow came to us. Because we care our hearts were touched. Oh, Andy, we all miss you, oh so much. You're with us in our thoughts today, You're with us in each prayer. Because we understand, but, most of all. Because we care."

Always loved and remembered by your family and Mom & Dad, Sisters & Brother, Nieces & Nephews 29-1tp

Ward golf club president

Didsbury Golf Club elected a new executive at its general meeting last week and the membership discussed a number of ways to improve the nine-hole course.

Bill Ward succeeds Jim Gole as club president. Other officers elected were vice-president Ron Durant, secretary Marge St. Clair and treasurer Don MacMillan.

Directors elected were: Dean Dahl, grounds; Dave Fife, clubhouse; Rod Collinge, men's golf; Mary Taylor and Ursula Kruger, ladies golf; Shelley Wilshusen, mixed fun golf;

Greg Hunter, junior golf; Allan Scott, club manager.

Among the items discussed, improvements to three tees, purchase of machinery, digging of the water hole on hole three, building the gazebo at the hole seven tee, and the ladies club to join the Canadian Ladies Golf Association.

The annual meeting of the club will be held the first week of April, 1992, and the audited statement will be presented at that time.

Dan Visser was the winner in the TV draw.
